BAB I. PENDAHULUAN

A. Latar Belakang Masalah ................................................................. 1

B. Identifikasi Masalah................................................................. 8

C. Pembatasan Masalah ............................................................. 9

D. Perumusan Masalah .............................................................. 9

E. Kegunaan Penelitian .............................................................. 9

BAB II. KAJIAN TEORITIK
A. Deskripsi Teoritis ........................................................................................................ 11

1. Motivasi Belajar (Variabel Y) .................................................................................. 11

2. Model Pembelajaran Kooperatif (Variabel X) ......................................................... 19

3. Model Pembelajaran Discovery .................................................................................. 27

4. Dasar-Dasar Perbankan ............................................................................................ 29

B. Kajian Penelitian yang Relevan .................................................................................. 31

C. Kerangka Teoritik ....................................................................................................... 41

D. Perumusan Hipotesis .................................................................................................. 43

BAB III. METODOLOGI PENELITIAN

A. Tujuan Penelitian ....................................................................................................... 44

B. Tempat dan Waktu Penelitian ................................................................................... 44

C. Metode Penelitian ....................................................................................................... 44

D. Populasi dan Sampling ............................................................................................... 46

E. Teknik Pengumpulan Data .......................................................................................... 47

F. Teknik Analisa Data Statistik ....................................................................................... 53

BAB IV. HASIL PENELITIAN DAN PEMBAHASAN

A. Deskripsi Data ........................................................................................................... 57

1. Motivasi Belajar Kelas Eksperimen ............................................................................. 57

2. Motivasi Belajar Kelas Kontrol .................................................................................... 61
